

and another for cooking. The kitchen ensemble sports a combination of light and dark glossy laminates. An intelligent use of laminates adds panache to Mehul's black and white-themed room. Their father's bedroom has been done in subtle and earthen colours. The ample amount of space in Milan's room has been well-utilized using wardrobes. "In this room we did a wall treatment with niches for showcasing accessories. The USP of this room is a study table that looks like a non-intrusive wall cabinet.

On inquiring about the heavy use of wood and laminates, Milan elaborated, "We have mostly utilized these materials wherever it seemed compulsory for aesthetics. Otherwise, we have introduced tiles inside the wardrobes and marble for door frames." For this project, the designers have experimented with Alabaster that reproduces the
